Job Posting 05-25-2018

We are an internationally recognized non-profit leading the way in transformational and educational experiences designed to deepen the connection with the wilds of nature and human communities. This fun down-to-earth all ages nature school is looking for several part-time Monthlies Youth Program Instructors to join our team. Our ideal candidates are creative, inspirational, and professional educators and mentors in the Eight Shield Coyote Mentoring culture.

This job is for you if you want to...

- Co-create awesome adventures with kids aged 4-13.
- Support and be supported by a diverse, experienced, and committed team of mentors.
- Have a say in which age group you want to work with at each park.
- Get paid for a weekly 1-hour planning meeting with Monthlies Mega-Team (Includes all Friday and Saturday teams in one room).
- Discover and deepen your personal connection with our go-to Seattle area parks (Tolt-MacDonald Park, Cougar Mountain Park, Seward Park, and St. Edward Park).
- Help us reach a giant pool of students who are unable to attend our weekly programs.

Youth Programs at WAS: Summer Camps for 1900 kids ages 4-18 and school year programs for 300 kids ages 4-18. Deep nature connection and healthy people connection is our mission.

Seasonality: Late August - Early May

Job Description:

- 1.) Instruct one or more school year monthly youth programs

Compensation:

- $15 per hour to start
- Opportunities for training with WAS Salaried Staff
- Connective, community minded work place
- Full time summer work potential

Part-Time Roles at Monthlies:

Core Monthlies Instructors - These staff will be Instructors or Lead Instructors 1-2 days per week for Friday and/or Saturday Monthly Programs at Seattle area parks. This is a 10-20 hour per week contract position, paid by the hour, requiring one planning meeting per week with the Monthlies teaching team (either on Monday or Tuesday).

Peripheral Monthlies Instructors - These staff will be Instructors 1-2 days per month for Friday and/or Saturday Monthly Programs at Seattle area parks. This person would not attend weekly staff meetings, and would receive orientation to the teaching team plan by email or at the planning meeting on the morning of program. This is a 8-16 hour per week contract position, paid by the hour, requiring NO planning meetings.

Please note that candidates who can work more hours and who can commit to the whole season (Sept-May) will receive preference.

How to apply:

Mail or Email (see address below) a complete application packet including:

1. Employment Application <https://wildernessawareness.org/about/employment>
2. Cover letter to Jesse Phillips, Monthlies Coordinator
Please include:
 - Whether you can work only Fridays, only Saturdays, or both.
 - How your position of choice fits into your personal and professional goals.
3. Resume

Applications due by June 30, 2018 for top consideration. Rolling after that until filled. Start date is August 27, 2018.
