~ Teaching from the Kalahari and Cords of Connection ~

When:

Teaching from the Kalahari starts October 15th at 9am and goes until 4:30 (with a short lunch break) and Cords of Connection starts October 16th at 9am and goes until 4:30 pm (with a short lunch break)

Please arrive by 8:30 and be prepared to start at 9am

Where:

Linne Doran is located about fifteen minutes outside of Duvall in the foothills of the Cascade Mountains. You can find a map and driving directions on our website:

<http://wildernessawareness.org/about/campus/maps/>

What to Expect:

We will be spending time outside in the woods as well as in our indoor classroom spaces, which range from rustic to modern. We will be spending significant time outside regardless of the weather. We encourage you to be prepared for all types of weather and bring several layers so that you can be comfortable throughout the class.

As this program is about unplugging, we will ask people to turn off their devices and only use for emergencies.

Facilities:

Personal facilities for your use include an indoor toilet and sink and several port-a-potties, along with drinkable water.

Camping:

Overnight camping is available for those interested

Food:

No meals are provided with this program. Please bring a lunch and snacks.

How to Get There:

Driving directions and maps can be found at:

Our Land address, if you are using a car/taxi service is:

20410 320th Ave NE,
Duvall, WA 98019

GEAR PACKING LIST

Please bring the following items. This list is designed with your comfort and safety in mind, and takes into account the variable weather possibilities during summer in Western Washington.

- o Personal medication
- o Sunscreen
- o 1-Liter water bottle
- o Notebook and pen/pencil
- o Mug for tea or coffee
- o Clothing that can be worn outside, get dirty, etc. appropriate to the weather.
- o Appropriate footwear (closed-toe preferred)
- o Lunch and snacks

Please note that all programs at our campus in Duvall have a combination of indoor and outdoor time. You will need clothing appropriate to the weather, clothing to be comfortable indoors, and ideally the ability to shift between the two with ease.
